A GREAT WAY TO GET INVOLVED AND SERVE YOUR COMMUNITY!!
APPLY TO SERVE ON A CITY COMMISSION OR COMMITTEE

Planning Commission

The Planning Commission is responsible for making recommendations to the City Council on re-zonings and amendments to the Zoning Ordinance and the City's General Plan. The Commission typically reviews and acts upon applications for Use Permits, Design Permits, Variances and Sign Permits.

The Planning Commission meets on the 2nd and 4th Thursdays of each month.
3 - Four-year terms ending in 2016 are available to apply for.

Parks, Beaches, and Recreation Commission

The Parks, Beaches, and Recreation Commission provides advice to the City Council regarding the Parks & Recreation Department, gather community opinions, needs and perceptions regarding recreational opportunities, and tackle such special projects as the Star Awards Program, Community Festival and the Festival of Lights.

This Parks, Beaches and Recreation Commission meets on the 3rd Wednesday of each month.
2 - Four-year terms ending in 2016 are available to apply for.

Open Space and Ecology Committee

The primary responsibility of the Open Space/Ecology Committee is to make recommendations to the City Council on the implementation of relevant programs and policies of the Open Space and Conservation Elements as well as the sustainability parts of the Local Economic Development chapter of the General Plan. That responsibility includes preparing drafts of the relevant, regular reports called for in the General Plan, such as the annual report on the status of open space.

The Open Space and Ecology Committee meets on the 2nd Wednesday of each month.
3-Two-year terms ending in 2014 and 3-Four-year terms ending in 2016 are available to apply for.

Traffic Advisory Committee

Traffic Advisory Committee members advise the Council on various traffic issues including parking on residential streets, installation of traffic control devices and other matters referred to the Committee by the Council of staff. The Traffic Advisory Committee meets as needed and does not have pre-scheduled meeting dates.
