Brisbane History Committee

MISSION STATEMENT

The Brisbane History Committee is a volunteer citizens group open to anyone from the community who has an interest in the history of the community. The Committee advises the Brisbane City Council on all aspects of the preservation, collection, maintenance, and sharing of the community's rich and varied history. The historical scope is wide, including the roles of individuals, community groups, businesses, public bodies, and the natural and cultural environments.

Edited by Ray Miller - January 13, 2018