RESOLUTION 2014-22
EXHIBIT "A"

CITY OF BRISBANE

SENIOR PLANNER

Definition

Under direction of the Community Development Director, administers current planning activities, including the zoning and subdivision ordinances for the City; provides information and assistance to property owners, developers, contractors and the public; provides professional assistance to the Community Development Director, the City Council and Planning Commission and others in areas of expertise; performs a variety of studies and prepares and presents staff reports; and performs related work as required.

Class Characteristics

The Senior Planner is the advanced journey-level in this professional planning series with responsibilities spanning the entire spectrum of the planning function, but with a primary emphasis on current planning and issues in a developing City. Successful performance of the work requires an extensive professional background as well as skills in coordinating work with those of other City departments and public agencies. This class is distinguished from Principal Planner in that the latter is responsible for more complex projects and exercises a higher degree of independent judgment in day-to-day activities.

Examples of Duties (Illustrative Only)

- Reviews applications for residential, commercial and industrial development; evaluates alternatives and conformance with City policies, ordinances, the General Plan and state and federal laws; prepares and presents staff reports to the Planning Commission and City Council regarding such applications.
- Reviews applications for zoning variances, business licenses and other occupancies for conformance to applicable ordinances and policies.
- Confers with and provides information to property owners, contractors, developers, engineers, architects and the public regarding conformance to standards, plans, specifications and codes; explains codes, requirements and procedures and evaluates alternatives.
- Coordinates the development application process and other current planning activities with those of other City departments, outside consultants and regulatory agencies; may administer consultant contracts.
- Participates in City long- and short-range planning activities; prepares modifications to specific General Plan elements; conducts a variety of special studies, evaluates alternatives, makes recommendations for actions, and prepares narrative and statistical reports.
- Directs the work of support staff on a project or day-to-day basis; trains staff in work procedures; provides information into selection and performance evaluation processes.
- Prepares a variety of written correspondence, reports, procedures, ordinances and other written materials.
- Maintains accurate records and files.
- Reviews planning documents submitted by other agencies; monitors changes in laws, regulations and technology that may affect office operations; recommends policy and procedural changes as required.
