B. Commendation -Eagle Scout Steven Tom

C. California High Speed Rail Preferred Alternative Presentation

Boris Lipkin, Northern California Regional Director at California High-Speed Rail Authority, along with his team from the California High Speed Rail Authority, presented on the California High Speed Rail Preferred Alternative Presentation on the San Francisco to San Jose Project Section.

The Light Maintenance Facility alternatives were: Port of San Francisco, East Brisbane/West Brisbane and San Francisco International Airport.

Authority staff recommended Alternative A- East Brisbane which is the recommended State's preferred alternative due to the following criteria:

- Fewest displacements
- Fewest road closures
- Fewest impacts on wetlands and habitats
- Fewest impacts on natural resources
- Fewest major visual impacts
- Slower HSR, faster Caltrain peak hour travel time
- Lowest capital cost
- Policy-level alignment with the Caltrain Business Plan

After some Council questions of Mr. Lipkin and Authority staff, Greg Vilkin, CEO of Universal Paragon, stated that if the Authority used UPC's EIR study for their research it's incomplete.

City Attorney McMorro asked why the Port of San Francisco and Gilroy were ruled out without the Authority having all the information.

After further Council questions of Authority staff, City of Brisbane staff and Mr. Vilkin of Universal Paragon, Roland Lebrun presented and spoke on alternative sites that can operate with need less acreage.

Kim Follien stated that housing is the highest need for this region.

Michael Barnes were concerned that the Authority only answers to the State and are not an elected body.

Dana Dillworth wanted to know why Authority meetings were not held in Brisbane

Nancy Lacsamana said she was upset about this plan by the Authority because it is not what Brisbane wants.

Deb Horen advocated for the community members to speak to the state legislators about what the community thinks about the Preferred Alternative.

D. Caltrain Business Plan Update

Sebastian Petty, Director of Policy and Development from Caltrain, presented on the Caltrain Business Plan Update. He reported that this is not a project but a plan of growth. The Caltrain corridor is growing and that by 2040 the corridor expected to add 1.2 million people and jobs within 2 miles of Caltrain and 80% growth expected in San Francisco and Santa Clara Counties. Mr. Petty discussed the different growth 2040 service growth scenarios: High growth, Moderate growth, and Baseline growth.

After some Council questions of staff and Mr. Petty, Greg Vilkin, CEO of Universal Paragon Corporation, stated that he wants a plan that is truly regional with all the stakeholders.
