

CITY OF BRISBANE

POLICE OFFICER

Definition

Under general supervision of a Police Sergeant, performs a wide variety of patrol and related duties involving the prevention of crime, the protection of life and property and the enforcement of laws and ordinances; makes investigations, assists in the preparation of cases and testifies in court; serves in specialized departmental roles as assigned; provides information and assistance to the public; and performs related work as required.

Class Characteristics

This sworn law enforcement class performs all non-supervisory assignments found in a municipal police department. While incumbents are normally assigned to a specific geographic area for patrol or traffic enforcement, all functional areas of the law enforcement field are included due to the size and organization of the department. Successful performance of the work requires a team-oriented individual who takes pride in serving the community, is flexible and a problem-solver, and is highly motivated and able to motivate others. This class is distinguished from Police Sergeant in that the latter is the first supervisory level in this sworn class series.
